

IS 189: Black Political Thought

New Upper Division Course in Global Studies

Professor Mamyrah Prosper

This course surveys the political ideologies and economic policies of foundational and influential leaders in the Caribbean and Africa. Breaking the regions into three historical moments (colonial, post-colonial and neoliberal), we examine speeches and policies from key political leaders in Africa and the Caribbean that supported, challenged, and/or initiated changes in the global structures of power.